Wynyard Hall Hotel awarded Silver at the North East England Tourism Awards 2010

Wynyard Hall County House Hotel was last night awarded Silver at the prestigious North East England Tourism Awards. This is a first time entry for Wynyard Hall, which has been shortlisted to finalists in the 'Small Hotel of the Year' category.

The North East England Tourism awards are the most prestigious awards of their kind and draw on the unrivalled expertise of the industry professionals who made up the judging panel. Each of the finalists was rewarded for their excellence and dedication to the hospitality industry. Allison Antonopoulos, Managing Director said: "We are absolutely delighted to have received this highly recognised award. It is a phenomenal achievement having only been open as a fully operational Hotel for just over one year. The team at Wynyard Hall have all worked hard and the recognition for this with such a prestigious accolade is immensely rewarding."

The AA four Star Hotel in Tees Valley is renowned as the ultimate venue for luxury hospitality, offering the very best in dining in their rosette awarded Wellington Restaurant, beautiful Accommodation, fairytale Weddings, Conference & Banqueting and relaxing Treatment Suite, all set in 150 acres of spectacular parkland. £2.5 million has been spent bringing the 18th Century building back to its former grandeur for all to enjoy.
