

WYNYARD HALL

CELEBRATE • EAT • EXPLORE • REST & RETREAT

The North East's Most Romantic Destination

The Wynyard Way

Welcome to the beginning of your very own Wynyard Hall love story, played out in one of the North East's most romantic and timeless setting.

Exclusively yours, our house becomes your home entirely for the duration of your wedding.

Weddings at Wynyard Hall are made unforgettable by the sheer beauty of the estate.

Dressed up or down, with impeccable service and exquisite food, it's a flawless setting for the most important day of your life, whether you're entertaining on a grand scale or seeking an intimate location.

The experience starts the moment you make an enquiry. Your dedicated Wedding Coordinator will be on hand throughout the planning stages of your wedding as well as our specialist Master of Ceremonies to guide you and your guests throughout your day.

With a passion for faultless service and the desire to exceed expectations, we bring a truly exceptional wedding experience. Led by our Executive Head Chef, our team of highly dedicated and passionate chefs use only the finest seasonal produce sourced from local suppliers and our very own kitchen garden, whilst our dedicated service team are on hand to cater to your every need.

This is the moment where everything falls into place.

Let us show you what it means to celebrate a wedding at Wynyard Hall,
the Wynyard Way

A Glamorous History

Beyond the beauty of Wynyard Hall, evident at first glance, lies a fascinating history enriched by a huge cast of characters, who all played their part in its remarkable story. From medieval origins to modern restoration as a country house, Wynyard Hall has performed an important role on the world stage, playing host to royalty, aristocrats, politicians, diplomats artists and writers.

The history of Wynyard becomes your history too, where you become entwined with the life and times of this great house.

“No house in the north of England stands so pre-eminent for gaiety and good cheer as the mansion at Wynyard”

Arrive

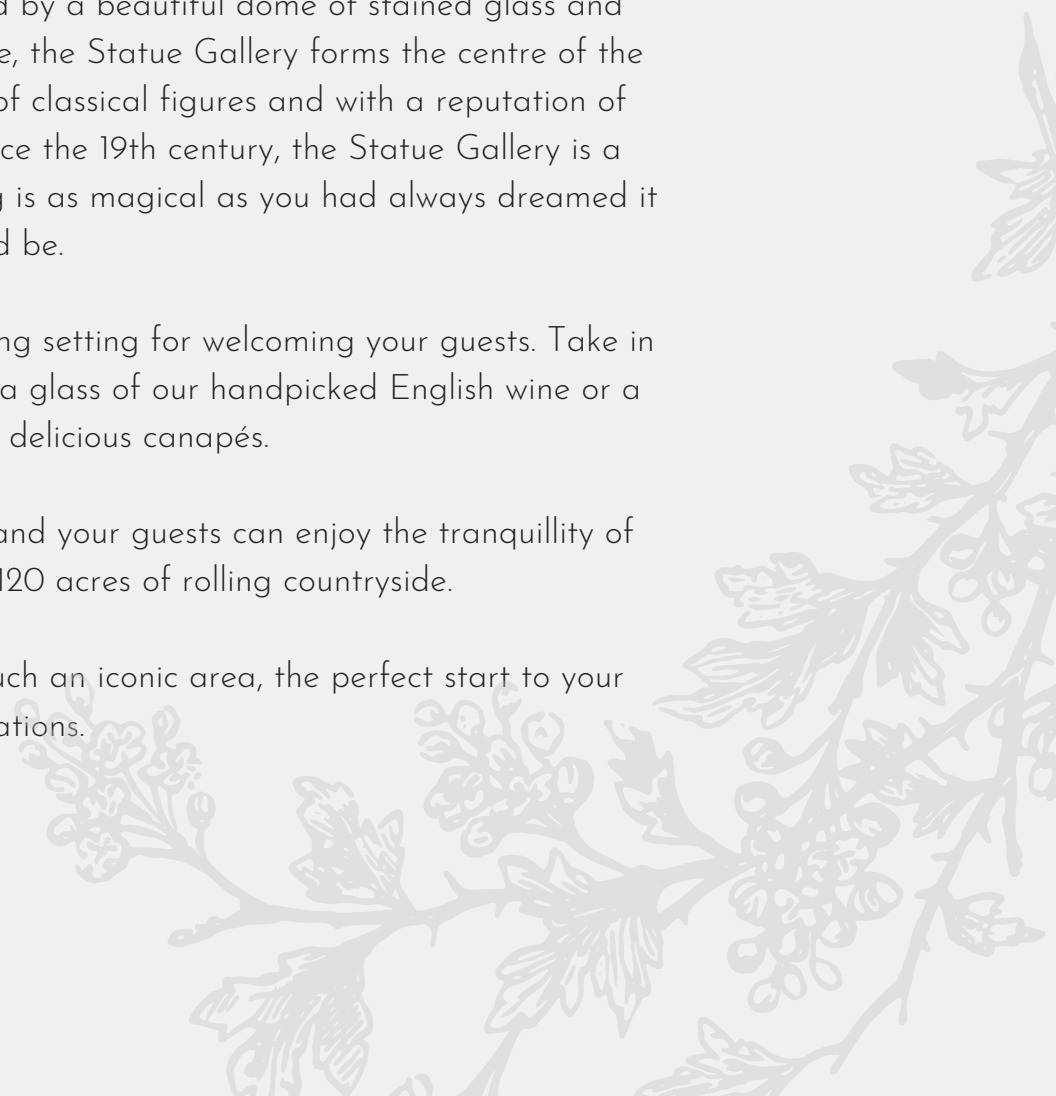

Romantic, elegant and iconic, it's no surprise that the Statue Gallery is one of the most sought after room to welcome your guests in.

120 feet long and 58 feet high, surmounted by a beautiful dome of stained glass and surrounded by pillars of Siena Italian marble, the Statue Gallery forms the centre of the Hall. Originally housing numerous statues of classical figures and with a reputation of generous hospitality and entertainment since the 19th century, the Statue Gallery is a unique location that will ensure your wedding is as magical as you had always dreamed it would be.

The spacious open plan room offers a stunning setting for welcoming your guests. Take in the views and mingle with guests alongside a glass of our handpicked English wine or a classic cocktail and delicious canapés.

Move onto our outdoor terrace where you and your guests can enjoy the tranquillity of views overlooking the lake and 120 acres of rolling countryside.

Few venues in the North East can boast such an iconic area, the perfect start to your celebrations.
